BELLS THE SIGNAL

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES PLANS TO INAUGURATE LOAN DRIVE

SPEAKERS ARE SECURED

Dr. J. E. Wolfe of Chicago and R. R. Brewster of Kansas City Will Be Here—Big Parade a Feature

Next Saturday afternoon the start of the third Liberty Loan drive will be signaled by the ringing of church bells at 2 o'clock and at the same time a big parade will be formed to go over the principal streets to be followed by patriotic speeches in front of the court house. The event will be in commemoration of the anniversary of the first year of the war and to impress with the urgent need of the government for funds with which to prosecute the war.

At the signal of the bells, business houses, stores, offices and factories will be emptied of customers and will close until the parade is ended, business men and citizens taking part in the demonstration. The closing is expected to be general throughout the city. Neglect to close on the part of any merchant, business or professional man will be regarded as evidence that such persons are not interested and they will be listed as slackers.

The committee of the Commercial Club has arranged for representations in the parade by the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, the schools throughout the township, G. A. R., and all lodges and civic societies, both Protestant and Catholic. It is the desire of the committee that every person join in the organization with which he or she is affiliated in the parade. Several floats are expected to be interesting features, depicting certain incidents in connection with the war.

Following the parade, Dr. J. E. Wolfe of Chicago, a noted speaker chosen by the government, will make an address from the band stand in front of the court house. In the evening in the circuit court room, R. R. Brewster, a well known Kansas Citian, will deliver an address. Both men are speakers who will be active in the Liberty Loan campaign.

At the same time on next Saturday afternoon all the other towns in the county will celebrate the start of the drive in a similar manner with parades and patriotic speaking, the Nodaway executive committee having provided speakers who will make addresses.

Speakers have been arranged for the following towns as follows:

Hopkins—Rev. C. Emerson Miller.
Guilford—Judge John M. Dawson.
Old Conception—T. A. Cummins.
Pickering—L. C. Cook and Geo. Robb Ellison.
Ravenwood—W. A. Blagg.
Burlington Junction—G. P. Wright.
Barnard—Rev. H. McNamee.
Graham—Rev. Gilbert S. Cox.
Elmo—Chas. McCaffrey.

RUSH TO TEST CORN

MORE PERSONS TO HELP WITH TESTS ARE NEEDED

WORK AT NEW STATION

Room Under Real Estate Bank Is Completely Equipped to Handle All That Is Brought

Corn! Corn everywhere! The farmers are taking advantage of the opportunity to get their corn tested scientifically and thus take no chances on having to plant over or get a half or two-thirds of a stand. Hands and teams are too scarce for a farmer to plant over if he can help it. When he can get his seed properly tested for ½-cent per ear or less than ten cents per acre he is not going to take any chances on it. As the planting season grows near the rush at the seed testing stations all over the county increases. The schools are all working to full capacity and have tested over 100 bushels each to date, and more hundreds to test. That means that thousands of acres of tested corn will be planted in Nodaway county this year.

The Maryville high school testing stations is now working in full swing. They work in shifts of 20 to 24 each afternoon. The corn is coming in by the wagon load and is piling up in the room in the station under the Real Estate bank. They want all the corn they can get, for every bushel tested means more food for Uncle Sam's boys and the Allies. That is what they are working for. Almost two hundred egg cases are now doing service in the station. Two hundred more will be in by the middle of the week.

Farmers are requested to bring the corn in the forenoons and thus give the workers a full opportunity to rush the work in the afternoons. Mrs. Miller is in charge of the station for Prof. Ziegler and the high school faculty. She is there every day and will receive the corn and see that it is properly tagged and listed. The work is done in systematic order and no chance for the corn to get mixed or lost. All the tests will be read by a specialist trained for the work. Prof. Huston, the new county farm agent, is cooperating and assisting the high school in the work. He is an experienced seed corn man and the school has found him invaluable in organizing and planning the new station on an elaborate scale.

Many of the pupils are becoming very proficient and there is much friendly rivalry between each squad. The girls can beat the boys in some cases as they are so nimble in using their hands.

The great need of the station now is forenoon workers, when the high school students can't get off. It looks like Maryville surely has some patriotic ladies or men who can give a few hours to this emergency work, as the testing must all be done in the next month. It is the greatest war work in the country at this particular time, as it means food for the soldiers and for us who stay at home. If you can spare an hour each forenoon or an hour or two a week go down to the station and offer to work. A forenoon squad of twenty is needed this week.

WILL RAISE $3,000 FOR FUND

Christian Church Expects to Go Over the Top in Campaign for Men and Millions Movement

The men of the First Chistian church have started the active campaign in the Men and Millions movement for a war emergency fund and will undertake to raise the quota of $3,000 within the next few days. The committee from the church here in charge of the work is composed of F. P. Robinson, G. B. Roseberry, A. L. Nash, U. S. Wright and Ed Gray.

Violette, the pastor, told needs for the maintenance of missions and keeping in operation Christian schools in foreign countries, $40,000 for missions and benevolences was subscribed by the congregation in twenty-nine minutes, says the Kansas City Star. Of this amount, $15,000 was subscribed by R. A. Long.

ANXIOUS TO FIGHT

HUGO EICHENHOFER COMES FROM ST. LOUIS TO JOIN QUOTA

PARENTS IN GERMANY

Eleven Men Leave This Afternoon to Enter Service—Two Ravenwood Boys Are Added to Number

His parents citizens of Germany, his father perhaps at this time a member of the kaiser's forces at the front in the great Picardy battle, Hugo Simon Eichenhofer is one of the drafted men who goes with ten others this afternoon to begin training to fight in the cause of world democracy.

Young Eichenhofer came with his parents to America but a few years ago from Germany. From St. Louis, where the family located, he was sent to Conception where he began studying for the priesthood and was a student at the college there at the time of the draft. After being accepted in the draft he returned to St. Louis and there awaited the call to the colors.

His parents returned to their native home before the war began. Young Eichenhofer came to Maryville today to go with the other members of the contingent to Camp Funston.

The young American—he is averse to being called a German—speaks quite brokenly and there is a bare chance, draft board officials say, that he will be refused at camp. He claims to have been naturalized, however, and says he is anxious to get into the fight.

One of the members of the contingent that leaves this afternoon, Roy David Hunterson of Ravenwood, has become of draft age since registration days, and appealing to the draft board to accept him as a member, he was included in the quota. Roy Thompson, also of Ravenwood, has also been added to the quota, making eleven who will be added to the colors from Nodaway county.

The other members of the contingent are as published in yesterday's Democrat-Forum. They will leave this afternoon on the Burlington, going by way of St. Joseph and Kansas City.

On return of the petition properly approved the permanent organization of the Home Guards will be completed and officers will be selected. Due notice will be given of further meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Neil Somerville left this afternoon for Kansas City to visit relatives for a few days.

CLOSE RACE INDICATED IN CITY MARSHAL CONTEST

POLLS OPEN UNTIL 8 P.M.

Election is a Quiet One With Little Interest Taken Except in Marshal and Collector Race

Only 435 votes had been cast up to 2:30 o'clock at the four polling places in the city election held today. At that time it was hard to predict the winners as the contests for marshal and city collector were very close.

Fro mthe dope from the candidates, the situation this afternoon was as follows in the four wards:

In the first ward, E. E. Tilton was about 5 votes ahead of Purl Edwards for city marshal. A. N. (Doll) Reese for city collector was slightly ahead of W. A. Burris. James Stewart for alderman has no opposition.

In the second ward, the judges were just beginning to count the votes at two o'clock. It is understood that Warren Jones for alderman for the longter mis leading L. L. Maier. Dick Strong for alderman for the short term has no opposition. No "dope" was heard about the city marshal or city collector race.

In the third ward, W. A. Burris was ahead ten votes of W. Y. Cox with Frank Martin in third place and A. N. Reese in fourth. Tilton was seven votes ahead of Edwards for city marshal. Aaron Souers for alderman was slightly leading over J. A. Speirs.

Edwards was ahead in the fourth ward, but it was said his lead was not very much over Tilton. Reese was in the lead in this ward by a small vote with Martin in second place. In the contest for alderman, Tom Penisten was away ahead of O. O. Howard.

W. O. Garrett for mayor is unopposed.

It was heard that the school levy is carrying in the different wards.

The lectures will continue this evening, also Wednesday afternoon and evening at the Zook building. They are well worth the attention of the merchants and business men of the city.

GERMANS PREPARE FOR SECOND SMASH

AIRMEN REPORT TROOPS ARE BEING MASSED IN THE SECTOR AT ALBERT

GEN. FOCH DECLARES THAT AMIENS IS SAFE

Enemy Airmen Bombard Paris Dropping Bombs—The Picardy Field Deep In Mud From Rains Hampers Operations

The battle line of Picardy as it stood today has taken on the exact profile of a human face. From Ablainseville to Buoquoy it goes towards the southwest, making the top of the head. From Buoquoy to Albert the line extends nearly due south, forming the forehead. Then there is an inward curve representing the lower angle of the forehead. Thence a line extends southwestward with a sharp angle at Marceliave, having a shape of a nose. The lips are formed by two small salients at Moreuill. The line again extends southwestward to Grivesnes, making the chin. The bottom of the face is represented by a line which lies through Montdider towards the southeast.

Paris, April 2.—The Anglo-French lines have been advanced between Somme and Demiun, the war office announced today. A heavy bombardment has been taking place along some parts of the battle front, but infantry operations are lessened.

London, April 2.—Another German drive in the direction of Arras is indicated by the developments of the past thirty-six hours in the great battle of Picardy. There was comparative lull in the fighting, while both sides rushed reinforcements of men and guns to the front, and the fighting that took place late Monday was described by the official report as "local."

The German drive has slackened all along the line. Allied airmen, including Americans, reported that the Germans are massing troops in the sector of Albert. Two German counter assaults delivered at the point of their salient between Luce brook and the Avre river were shattered by British artillery, the war office reported today. The Germans lost heavily while the British made successful raids on the west Flanders front. A great number of German dead are still on the field.

Paris, April 2.—The declaration by General Foch that Amiens is safe brought a thrill of exultation today. German airmen bombarded Paris early today. Gothe machines approaching the city shortly after three o'clock, and the raid was in progress until nearly four o'clock. A number of bombs were dropped on the city.

Amsterdam, April 2. — The muddy condition of the Picardy battle field has caused a reconcentrating and is hampering the use of tanks, especially the heavy cumbersome German ones.

RAIN AND SNOW IS FORECAST

If your garden "sas" is up, you'd better arrange to protect it tonight, for the weather man, forecasting a change from the balmy weather of the past week, announces that tonight there will probably be rain, turning to snow, and that Wednesday will be much colder, with strong northerly winds. Farmers will welcome rain as the ground is badly in need of moisture, it being so dry in places that wide cracks have appeared.

MOST MONEY IS IN WHEAT

Price of No Other Grain Has Advanced as Much In Return to the Farmer —Increase 131 Per Cent

Wheat now brings the highest return to the farmer a bshel of any cereal crop, just as it did in pre-war times. The average price received by the farmer for wheat in the three years before the war was $.869, while the price received now is $2.006. This is an increase of 131 per cent.

For corn in the three pre-war years he received an average price of $.665; today he is receiving $1.388, an increase of 109 per cent. Oats only bring $.787; in pre-war times they brought $.404. Barley before the war brought the farmer $.842; now it is bringing $1.319. Both oats and barley have increased in returns to the farmer by 105 per cent.

These figures indicate that the price of no other grain has advanced so much in net return to the farmer as compared with pre-war conditions as has that of wheat. Corn comes the nearest with 109 per cent increase to the farmer, as against 131 per cent increase in wheat.

The transportation difficulties have operated to create higher prices to the consumer because it has not been possible for the railroads to get grain to primary markets as fast as the demand for export and domestic use could and would have been absorbed. This has resulted in maintaining an artificially high differential between farmer and consumer.

These prices announced recently by the Missouri division of the food administration were compiled by Dr. Raymond Pearl of the statistical department of the United States food administration.

Native steers $14.20; pulpers $14.10; stockers $12.50; Colorado lambs $19.10. All April record prices. Railroad service still improving, resulting in an early clearance.

Beef Cattle.—Smaller receipts, especially in western pulpers, indicating close shipment of the remaining supply to all western markets, was reflected in an early demand at strong to 10c higher prices. Natives sold at $14.20, just $1.35 above previous April top, and Colorado pulpers, horned, 1,585 pounds, at $14.10, record top. Yearlings sold at $13. Butcher classes scarce, active and firmer. Colorado mixed yearlings at $11.25 and natives up to $12.35. Bulls and calves scarce and firmer; veals up to $14, against $13.50 last week.

Stockers and Feeders.—Fleshy feeders were scarce and in good demand a steady to firm prices, while trade in stockers and yearlings was slow and irregular in comparison, ranging steady with the mean close last week and 25c to 50c under the high level in the fore part of the week. However, a fancy lot sold at $12.50, record top for April. Feeders ranged up to $12.25. Stock cows and heifers were steady, mostly selling at $8.50 to $9.25.

Hogs.—Local supplies of hogs were in excess of the early estimate at 12,000, yet 5,000 less than on last Monday. Shippers were strong competitors at the start, paying 15c up 25c higher, while packers held back, but later paid the early advance. Lightweights ranged up to $17.40; heavies $16.90 and bulk $16.50 to $17, against $17.15 for the top and $16.35 to $17 bulk last Monday. Pigs averaged steady, from $13 to $16.50.

Sheep.—The limited supply was quickly absorbed. Although the early estimate was 5,000, less than 2,000 arrived up to noon. Opening sales were 25c higher and the close 25c to 50c up. Fat sheep were scarce. Some western yearlings at $16.75 and Colorado lambs up to $19.10, a new 1918 top. Western ewe lambs $17.50; breeding ewes $15.65; Colorado sheep $16.50. Salesmen say choice lightweight lambs would sell at $19.50. Breeding and feeding grades very scarce and firm.

ROAD DRAGGING IMPORTANT

Inspectors Report Thousands of Dollars Left Unexpended In Road Drag Funds

Too much importance cannot be attached to the proper dragging of earth roads. The Hawes' law provides $15 per mile per year to pay for dragging or otherwise improving the officially approved inter-county seat roads. There are 11,300 miles of these roads in Missouri, according to records made public by the state highway department, but in many counties the money is not properly expended. Inspectors employed by the state report thousands of dollars left in the road drag funds and the roads in a very bad condition. The state highway department has ruled that the accumulated funds must be expended on the roads for which the appropriation was made, and no funds will be sent to counties in the future except on requisition for work already done. If the inter-county seat road in your section is not properly dragged, or otherwise improved, you should report same to the state highway department.

$4,000 FIRE AT ELLIS FARM

Blaze of Unknown Origin Destroys Twelve Head of Live Stock, Besides Grain and Implements

A barn and double corn crib together with a quantity of grain, cows and horses and many implements were destroyed by fire last evening between 8 and 9 o'clock on the old Ellis farm, two miles west of Barnard. The loss is about $4,000, partly covered by insurance. The farm belongs to Judge O. G. Ellis, of Tacoma, Wash., chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Washington. Judge Ellis inherited the farm from his father, Doctor Ellis.

The barn and corn cribs were built within the last year or so. The tenant on the farm, H. E. Ogier, lost five cows, seven horses, 700 bushels of corn, a large quantity of hay and a large supply of farming implements. The cause of the fire is unknown.

THE JUNIOR RED CROSS SALE

Supt. Cooper Says That Nothing Is Too Small to be Received—Bring Your Donations Early

County Superintendent Bert Cooper, head of the Junior Red Cross, in announcing the sale next Saturday, says:

Please do not forget to bring at least one article to town for the Junior Red Cross sale next Saturday, April 6. Do your bit toward this work. When the funds stop all the work stops for the boys and girls in the schools, who are doing so much at this great work.

In February $500 was raised in the communities by the schools and material was purchased with this, but it is all worked up and the clothes and bandages are now speeding on their way to do their mission. It will be too bad if more don't follow.

Don't think that what you are going to take will be too small to put into the sale, for it will not. Give a piece of fancy work or a bushel of potatoes or less than a bushel if you like; give a setting of eggs or a pig to the cause. It will be sold and your name mentioned as the donor.

Any articles left at Bert Cooper's office will be put into the sale along with the seed corn donated by Dale Thompson. It won the sweepstakes prize at the corn show last winter at Columbia. If you do not want to plant this corn keep it for a souvenir. If you have not seen it, take a look at it in the window at the Corwin-Murrin clothing store.

All articles will be sold at auction in front of the court house on next Saturday at 3 o'clock following the Liberty Loan rally and program. R. P. Hosmer will be the auctioneer.

When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. WALLIS

The Tractor Years Ahead Of Its Time!

THE WALLIS tractor offers you for the first time the five fundamental elements which our farmers want. These are Light-weight, Power, Durability, Speed, and Economy.

50% More Power At The Draw Bar

Power at the draw bar is what does your work. And power can not be bought by ton weight.

The Wallis tractor weighs only 3000 lbs. That is 1000 to 5000 lbs. lighter than other tractors designed to do the same work.

The Wallis delivers at the draw bar 74% of the power generated by its motor. This means that from every gallon of fuel it delivers 50% more power at the draw bar than heavy tractors which require 40% to 50% of their power to propel their own weights. This epoch making fact is accomplished by the simplicity of design and excellence of materials and workmanship.

Speed A Big Factor In Plowing!

The Wallis turns this big saving in usable power into draw bar pull and speed. It pulls three 14 inch bottoms 6 to 8 inches deep at the rate of 2½ miles per hour. This means 10 3-5 acres per 10 hour day.

The average tractor is designed to pull the same load 1¾ miles per hour or 7 2-5 acres per day.

Biggest Returns For Your Money

This tractor which is years ahead of its time offers wonderful rewards to Wallis users. With the care to which it is entitled it will give you the biggest returns for your money because it will do the most work in a given time and will last the longest. Divide its purchase price by the years of service and it will be found the most economical—that's want counts.

These are features which you should consider seriously before you decide upon any tractor. We will gladly explain the many advanced ideas in the Wallis to you.

THE STORE WITH RIGHT PRICES

Postponed Monthly Sale

The county chairman of the Liberty Loan committee has requested that all business houses in the county close from 2 to 3 o'clock on Saturday, April 6, and feeling that the holding of my monthly sale on that day would interfere with some being at their respective towns at that time to participate in the observance of that day, I WILL THEREFORE HOLD NO SALE APRIL 6. THE NEXT SALE WILL BE APRIL 20.

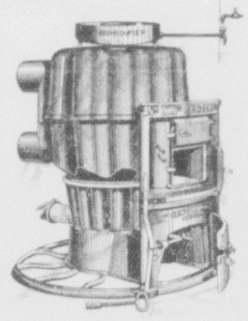
The XXth Century Furnace

Whether you are building this year or remodeling and making your home more modern—the greatest modernizing influence you can give it will be the installation of a XXth CENTURY FURNACE.

The XXth CENTURY is the nearest approach to ideal heating. It is not the fuel alone that can be depended on to make heat, but the fuel in the furnace that burns the gases and utilizes the heat units in coal, so as to produce warmth economically.



This the XXth CENTURY line of heaters accomplishes by unequalled principles of combustion. The smoke nuisance is abated, while at the same time increasing the efficiency of the fuel by producing more heat from a given amount of coal.

The Home Ventilator Pipeless Furnace

Is sold on a positive five-year guarantee. It was the first pipeless furnace, and has demonstrated its suprior efficiency to the complete satisfaction of every user.

No wall flues or extra chimney are necessary with this furnace—it heats direct, with only one register, distributing the heat evenly throughout the house with the least waste and the least trouble—therefore with greatest economy.

Let us figure with you on putting a furnace in your home. We can show you the practical way to insure best results and can install it without inconvenience to you.
